2. The water tank must be full and clean at the commencement of the agreement.

PART D – RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

This is a summary of selected rights and obligations of renters and rental providers under the *Residential Tenancies Act 1997 *(the Act). Any reference to VCAT refers to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

For more information, visit www.consumer.vic.gov.au/renting.

Use of the premises

The renter:

- is entitled to quiet enjoyment of the premises. The rental provider may only enter the premises in accordance with the Act.

- must not use the premises for illegal purposes.

- must not cause a nuisance or interfere with the reasonable peace, comfort or privacy of neighbours.

- must avoid damaging the premises and common areas. Common areas include hallways, driveways, gardens and stairwells. Where damage occurs, the renter must notify the rental provider in writing.

- must keep the premises reasonably clean.

Condition* *of the premises

The rental provider:

- must ensure that the premises comply with the rental minimum standards, and is vacant and reasonably clean when the renter moves in.

- must maintain the premises in good repair and in a fit condition for occupation.

- agrees to do all the safety-related maintenance and repair activities set out in Part C of the agreement.

The renter:

- must follow all safety-related activities set out in

Part C of the agreement and not remove, deactivate or interfere with safety devices on the premises.

Modifications

The renter:

- may make some modifications without seeking consent. These modifications are listed on the Consumer Affairs website.

- must seek the rental provider’s consent before installing any other fixtures or additions.

- may apply to VCAT if they believe that the rental provider has unreasonably refused consent for a modification mentioned in the Act.

- at the end of the agreement, must restore the premises to the condition it was in before they moved in (excluding fair wear and tear). This includes removing all modifications, unless the parties agree they do not need to be removed.

SAMPLE: not a real agreement

The rental provider:

- must not unreasonably refuse consent for certain modifications.

SAMPLE: not a real agreement

A list of the modifications that the rental provider cannot unreasonably refuse consent for is available on the Consumer Affairs Victoria website at www.consumer.vic.gov.au/renting.

Locks

- The rental provider must ensure the premises:

- has locks to secure all windows capable of having a lock, and

- has deadlocks (a deadlock is a deadlatch with at least one cylinder) for external doors that are able to be secured with a functioning deadlock, and

- meets the rental minimum standards for locks and window locks.

- External doors which are not able to be secured with a functioning deadlock must at least be fitted with a locking device that:

- is operated by a key from the outside; and

- may be unlocked from the inside with or without a key.

- The renter must obtain consent from the rental provider to change a lock in the master key system.

- The rental provider must not unreasonably refuse consent for a renter seeking to change a lock in the master key system.

- The rental provider must not give a key to a person excluded from the premises under a:

- family violence intervention order; or

- family violence safety notice; or

- recognised non-local DVO; or

- personal safety intervention order.

Repairs

- Only a suitably qualified person must do repairs – both urgent and non-urgent.

Urgent repairs

Section 3(1) of the Act defines urgent repairs. Refer to the Consumer Affairs Victoria website for the full list of urgent repairs and for more information, visit www.consumer.vic.gov.au/urgentrepairs.

Urgent repairs include failure or breakdown of any essential service or appliance provided for hot water, cooking, heating or laundering supplied by the rental provider.

The rental provider must carry out urgent repairs after being notified.

A renter may arrange for urgent repairs to be done if they have taken reasonable steps to arrange for the rental provider to immediately do the repairs and the rental provider has not carried out the repairs.

If the renter has arranged for urgent repairs, the renter may be reimbursed directly by the rental provider for the reasonable cost of repairs up to $2,500.

The renter may apply to VCAT for an order requiring the rental provider to carry out urgent repairs if:

- the renter cannot meet the cost of the repairs; or

- the cost of repairs is more than $2,500; or

- the rental provider refuses to pay the cost of repairs if it is carried out by the renter.

SAMPLE: not a real agreement

Non-urgent repairs

SAMPLE: not a real agreement

- The renter must notify the rental provider, in writing, as soon as practicable of:

- damage to the premises.

- breakdown of facilities, fixtures, furniture or equipment supplied by the rental provider.

- The rental provider must carry out non-urgent repairs in reasonable time.

- The renter can apply to VCAT for an order requiring the rental provider to do the repairs if the rental provider has not carried out the repairs within 14 days of receiving notice of the need for repair.

Assignment or sub-letting

The renter:

- must not assign (transfer to another person) or sub-let the whole or any part of the premises without the written consent of the rental provider.

The rental provider may give the renter notice to vacate if the renter assigns or sublets the premises without consent.

The rental provider:

- cannot unreasonably withhold consent to assign or sub-let the premises.

- must not demand or receive a fee or payment for consent, other than reasonable expenses incurred by the assignment.

Rent

- The rental provider must give the renter at least 90 days' written notice of a proposed rent increase.

- Rent cannot be increased more than once every 12 months.

- If the rental provider or agent does not provide a receipt for rent, the renter may request a receipt.

- The rental provider must not increase the rent under a fixed term agreement unless the agreement provides for an increase.

Access and entry

- The rental provider may enter the premises:

- at any time, if the renter has agreed within the last 7 days.

- to do an inspection but not more than once every 6 months.

- to comply with the rental provider's duties under the Act.

- to show the premises or conduct an open inspection to sell, rent or value the premises.

- to take images or video for advertising a property that is for sale or rent.

- if they believe the renter has failed to follow their duties under the Act.

- to do a pre-termination inspection where the renter has applied to have the agreement terminated because of family violence or personal violence.

- The renter must allow entry to the premises where the rental provider has followed proper procedure.

- The renter is entitled to a set amount of compensation for each sales inspection.

Pets

- The renter must seek consent from the rental provider before keeping a pet on the premises.

SAMPLE: not a real agreement

- The rental provider must not unreasonably refuse a request to keep a pet.

Smoke Alarms

SAMPLE: not a real agreement

- The rental provider must ensure that any smoke alarm installed in the rented premises is:

- correctly installed and in working condition; and

- fitted with batteries or replacement batteries; and

- tested at least once every 12 months in accordance with any instructions by the manufacturer of the smoke alarm.

- If a smoke alarm installed in the rented premises does not meet the requirements set out above, the renter may issue a request to the rental provider for urgent repairs to the smoke alarm in accordance with section 72AA of the Act.

- On receiving notice from the renter under the clause above, the rental provider or the provider's agent must immediately arrange for the repairs to be carried out.

- Any testing, repair or replacement of a smoke alarm that is powered by a mains electricity supply must be undertaken by a suitably qualified person.

PART E – ADDITIONAL TERMS

21 Further details (if any)

List any additional terms to this agreement. The terms listed must not exclude, restrict or modify any of the rights and duties included in the Act.
